NAGPUR BENCH : NAGPUR

CRIMINAL APPLICATION NO. 1663 OF 2007
IN CRIMINAL APPEAL NO. 209 OF 2007

Moreshwar Suryabhanji Nehare vs. State of Maharashtra

Office Notes, Office Memoranda of Coram, appearances, Court's orders or directions and Registrar's orders.	Court's or Judge's orders

CORAM : D.D. SINHA AND B.P. DHARMADHIKARI, JJ.
AUGUST 09, 2007.

The present Criminal Application No. 1663 of 2007 is for consideration of grant of bail.

We have considered the contentions canvassed by Shri Deshpande, learned counsel for the applicant/ appellant and Smt. Wandile, learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondent.

In the instant case, the prosecution is based on circumstantial evidence and the following circumstances are considered by the trial Court to hold that they complete the requisite chain and found that prosecution succeeded in proving the case against the appellant for the murder of deceased Ankush.

1. The presence of the applicant/ appellant was proved by the prosecution evidence.

2. There was human blood on the clothes which were worn by the accused/ appellant.

3. There is a seizure of axe (weapon of offence) from the appellant which had human blood.

4. The doctor has opined that the injuries caused to the deceased could have been caused by the weapon like axe.

In the backdrop of the above referred facts, we are of the view that no case is made out for grant of bail. Criminal Application is dismissed. No costs.
